

PEAK FREERIDE NISEKO

Peak freeride offers Freeride coaching camps in the Niseko region of Japan.

Coach and Founder Blake Marshall, A former Freeride World Tour athlete and current Head coach of the Freeride World Tour Academy in New Zealand, Blake has dedicated my career to pushing the limits of freeride skiing while helping others progress.

I want to create a camp where athletes can come and enjoy what Japan has to offer, the amazing snow and terrain is perfect for freeride athletes to have fun.
